

Students Life Newspaper

Mount Union Vs. Marietta

On Wednesday October 17 the Louisville girls soccer team the Annihilators witnessed a Mount Union soccer game against Marietta at the Mount Union football stadium. The girls of the Annihilators team were paired up with one of the soccer players from mount union team. The person on the speaker would call a number and if that was your players number you would get to high five everyone with them.

After that was all done the Annihilators lined up with the girls and stood there to listen to the national anthem. Then the game began the whole game was very intense with all the pushing and shoving and Marietta put up a great fight and put in an immense amount of effort, but Mount Union won with a final score of 5-1.

~by Cheeks

Basketball Tryouts

On Monday October 24 through Wednesday October 26, the Louisville 8th graders had their basketball tryouts. All the girls were trying their best.

G. was trying really hard because she is new to the team and school. She didn't know if she was going to make the team. The team ran a lot, and had tryouts with the 7th graders too. We scrimaged the 7th grade basketball girls, they won but the team has been scrimaging since the 6th practice. The 8th grade girls have won all but one. Everyone made the team! Now everyone is practicing hard.

~by Almond

Red Legion Invasion

On November 5th 2018 there was a black fog around the tower and the people in the tower were wondering what was going on then there was a massive fleet of giant red ships coming to invade the tower then the ships started shooting out dropships shaped like balls that landed in the tower. The dropships had alien like creatures inside of them called the cabal they had heavy armour on. The cabal were in the red legion faction. To try and protect the tower some of the people called the guardians had special powers called light.

~by Freckles

Lil Kev Event At Bot Lake

Sunday November 4th, in a Fortnite game M. and A. were at

Loot Lake to witness the event about lil Kev who was a big purple cube in the game moving around, that was happening in Fortnite at Loot Lake. The cube was flying in the air after breaking apart Loot Lake. The cube was turning into a glowing, old looking cube that looked like it was about to blow up. Lil Kev started spinning in a circle really fast and then the whole screen turned white after it had blown up and the entire server was in a white space with rifta-butterfly flying around everyone in the server. The blue cracked up butterfly landed on everyone's finger and the whole server spawned super high up. The whole server went down to the bottom where lil Kev had blown up. Everyone started shooting at each other, it was a massacre at loot lake. M. and A. instantly were shot and killed. The event had ended and lil Kev died. Everyone got challenges to get a cosmetic. The cosmetic was lil Kev back bling oh wait the lil Kev is alive again

~by Inky

First Time Driving a Boat

On June 19th I. got to drive the boat. This occurred around midday in a little town called Gladwin, Michigan. After I.'s family all ate lunch I.'s brother said "I want to ride with papa". So after lunch he rode with papa in the water tube. But there was a problem, there would be no driver for the boat. That's when I. stepped up and said "I'll drive the boat".

~by Rocket

